

Mid-Term Quiz 1

Word Bank

delegation before Federal Register
legal theory

laws
Fifth agency standards

statute problems after rules

Freedom of Information Act Fourteenth
Administrative Law

Fill-in

Questions

1. _____ defines agencies' powers.
2. Acts and statutes are _____.
3. Agencies develop _____ from legislative guidelines.
4. Administrative agencies solve _____.
5. The Delegation Doctrine is a _____.
6. Each agency develops its own _____.
7. The _____ amendment protects against unwarranted search.
8. The major issue in Goldberg v. Kelly is the need for a hearing. _____ benefits are denied.
9. All rules made by federal agencies must be published in the _____.
10. The _____ protects access to information.

Answers

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

True/False

Questions

1. Agencies make rules in their areas of expertise.
2. A danger of too much discretion is a dictatorial agency.
3. The Separation of Powers separates government into two branches—Senate and House of Representatives.
4. Due Process is upheld in the Fifth Amendment.
5. Agencies make inflexible decisions because of their powers of discretion.
6. The Intelligible Principle test demands clear guidelines to agencies.
7. The delegation of powers to agencies is limited.
8. Maycock v. INS concerns strict enforcement of time limits.
9. Substantive rules carry out the intent of the statute.
10. Formal rulemaking has a trial-type hearing..

Answers

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____