

Mid-Term Quiz #3

Word Bank

substantive
self-incrimination
administrative law
self-incrimination

notice
delegation
Fifth
rights

rule
informal legislatures
Sunshine

Internal Revenue Service
discretion
Intelligible Principle
Federal Register

Fill-In

Questions

1. The Fifth Amendment protects against _____.
2. Processing claims are _____ action.
3. Legislative guidelines are upheld by the _____ test.
4. In informal actions, agencies use _____.
5. _____ transfer a limited amount of their power to agencies.
6. The _____ Acts uphold access to public meetings.
7. _____ law is the defining and limiting of the powers of government agencies..
8. _____ tells us where an action will take place.
9. _____ rules implement statutes.
10. The _____ publishes rules.

Answers

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

Multiple-Choice

Questions

Answers

- | | | |
|----|---|----------|
| 1. | The major laws are:
a. procedural
b. substantive
c. all of the above | 1. _____ |
| 2. | The Registry of Motor Vehicles is an example of a:
a. regulatory agency
b. social welfare agency
c. executive agency | 2. _____ |
| 3. | The Interstate Commerce Commission Act was passed in:
a. 1887
b. 1938
c. 1995 | 3. _____ |
| 4. | Panama Refining states the NIRA did not have:
a. sufficient standards
b. sufficient limitations
c. all of the above | 4. _____ |
| 5. | Substantive due process deals with:
a. rights of individuals
b. agency procedures
c. all of above | 5. _____ |
| 6. | Agencies have discretionary powers because of their:
a. staff of experts in the agency's field of interest
b. number of rules
c. budgets | 6. _____ |
| 7. | The Trade Secrets Act upholds the privacy of:
a. meetings access
b. business information
c. communications information | 7. _____ |
| 8. | Substantive due process deals with:
a. rights of individuals
b. agency procedures
c. all of the above | 8. _____ |

9. A combination of legislative and judicial functions in rules is: 9. _____
a. interpretive
b. hybrid
c. procedural

10. The objectives of agencies are printed in: 10. _____
a. formal hearings
b. policy statements
c. Fifth Amendment